as an advisory council to advise the Church on the matter that has been set forth in previous references and commonly spoken of as the Decoration Question."
The moderator asked the clerk to read all references on record in regard to the above mentioned question which was done at length Since a period of Several years was covered Eld. N.R. Mooney stated his position to the Council in the presence of the church. He, (Eld N.K. Mooney) asked some of the brethren who were present at the decoration in Sept. 1952 to state to the council and the church the order they observed being carried on. Brethren J.B. Weaver, J.J. Mooney and Homer Parker stated to the church, that they were present at the service and saw no evidence of disorder.

After a general discussion of the matter Eld. J.C. Mooney made motion and Eld N.K. Mooney second it that the Elders who sit on the Council retire and try to reach a decision, in order to advise the church. Eld Mooney suggested that the church hold a "little confessional" while the council was out. Eld. Speir suggested the service be opened with prayer. Thereupon, the council retired. Prayer was led by Eld. Lloyd Parker.

Council returned and submitted the following recommendations;

We, your committee, have agreed it will be wise for the cause under consideration that Eld. N. B. Mooney acknowledge as an error in Striving with others than Primitive Baptist ministers, in order, in the so-called, memorial Service. We feel the practise of introducing musical instruments in such Service is brought into the Church, the house of God, would be irregular and not in harmony with old Baptist practice We feel that he or any other minister of the old Baptist faith has a God-given right to exercise his gift whenever and wherever opportunity is afforded but should not use such gift in open violation of the order of his church but, for the sake of peace, should be submissive to such order. If any error is committed by the Church, it should be left with them to see such error and repent.

Signed:
A. H. Spir Chairman
J. A. Monsee
R. E. Cagle

Eld. N.R. Mooney said he believed that he is due the Church an acknowledgement for having participated in a service with a preacher of another order also concerning a musical instrument having been used in the church at a prior time, in a limited way.

Motion by Bro. J.B. Parker and second by Bro. Laurence Weaver to adjourn until next meeting time. Motion Carried & Conference adjourned.
